REPORT

Date January 24, 1934.

Subject (in full) Anonymous letter regarding communist suspects.

Made by D.I. Kuh Pao-hwa Forwarded by D. I. [illegible]

With reference to the attached anonymous letter alleging that three Fokienese communists named Toong Tsong Yuen(董宗元), Li(李) and Zau(趙) are residing in the Kyih Sung(佶隆) Lodging House, No.10, Lane 195, Fokien Road, I have to report the following result of enquiries made into this matter by C.D.S.48:-

The lodging house in question, which consists of some thirty rooms, is occupied exclusively by merchants visiting Shanghai from Wenchow and Ningpo, and, as a rule, no rooms are let to other people.

The lodging house registration book was examined and the entries scrutinized over a period of several weeks but no names corresponding to these mentioned in the anonymous letter were found.

It is surmised that the letter was written by some person wishing to embarrass the lodging house proprietor.

Translation of an anonymous letter dated January 18,1934, addressed to D.I. Kuh Pao-hwa c/o Shanghai Municipal Police, by one Tsang Ping (藏萍), residing in the Dz Oen Li (宽幸里),.....(? Ningpo Road).

I confidentially report to you that more than ten Fokienese communists have arrived in Shanghai and are in hiding in the Kyih Sung (吉隆) Lodging House, No.10, Lane 195,Fokien Road. The leaders are named Toong Tsong Yuan (董宗元), Li (李), Zau (趙) and they speak the northern dialect. They come to Shanghai for the purpose of secretly organizing subversive activities. Please send detectives to investigate and effect their arrest so as to remove the evil from the Settlement.
